

27th International conference on

Neurology and Cognitive Neuroscience

October 18-19, 2018 | Warsaw, Poland

Advances in surgical management of brain metastasis - New perspectives of treatment

Bruno Pereira

Cancer Foundation Hospital, Brazil

Brain metastasis are the most brain tumors and present a significant public health problem. The advances in stereotactic radiosurgery studies has revealed that the total brain volume lesion may be a better prognostic index than the the number of lesions in predict overall survival. This new perspective of treatment may reduce cognitive impairment and other toxicities associated with whole brain radiation therapy.

Biography

Bruno Pereira has graduated in Medicine at Unimedrsidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro and in 2017 completed the Resident program in Hospital Federal de Bonsucesso. He is the attending Neurosurgeon of Bruno Pereira, Cancer Foundation Hospital, Rio de Janeiro - Brazil.

bsilvapereira@gmail.com

Notes: